

Expected Fort Myers Christian School Student Outcomes

Mission statement: FMCS works with the home and the church to academically train and spiritually nurture students to become productive citizens in society and impact others for Jesus Christ

Core Values: faith, love, integrity, excellence, & service

What are the expected outcomes for our FMCS students:

Academically train:

- Learn how to apply knowledge and analyze information to deal with real-world problems through the lens of a Christian worldview
- Meet and exceed academic standards with integrity
- Become confident, critical thinkers
- Demonstrate responsibility by completing their own work and turning it in on time

Spiritually nurture:

- Make Christ the foundation of their life and be aware of the daily presence of God in their life
- Know that they are loved and show that love to others
- Grow in their knowledge and application of the Word and worship
- Memorize and apply scripture “in their heart”
- Understand that God knows their prayers and that they can pray with confidence in every circumstance
- Discover and develop their unique spiritual gifts

Productive citizens in society:

- Become effective communicators—both in-person and online
- Exhibit love and respect for all people in their local community and around the world
- Desire to take care of God’s planet and become responsible stewards of the earth
- Volunteer to serve in their community
- Advocate for people in need with boldness

Impact others for Jesus Christ:

- Articulate their faith when sharing with others
- Defend their faith with gentleness and respect
- Integrate their faith in their daily life and chosen profession someday
- Pray for others
- Proclaim the gospel (truth) of Christ
